It is that time of year. All that lies before Winter Break is finals week! I urge everyone to practice good self-care over the next few days. Remember that sleep and water are very vital to your performance. If you are feeling nervous during your tests try taking 10 deep breaths to help calm yourself down. Most importantly, try to remember that finals week is only 7 days and then you will have a worry free month! Good luck on all of your exams! I hope everyone has a safe and happy break. Happy Holidays!

Best wishes for the New Year!
Whitney Oliverio

Winter Driving Tips

Check your tire pressure! The cold cause air molecules to compress, leaving your tires with a lower PSI.

Maintain a safe distance from vehicles in front of you.

Keep an eye out for pedestrians and wildlife.

The BEST way to avoid an accident is to avoid the ice!
Books

Rental

Rented textbooks are due back to the bookstore by finals week. Make sure to check the date listed on the rental book and return your textbook to avoid paying any fees.

Selling Your Books

There are several ways to sell your books. On campus you can sell you books at The Bookstore downtown or at Towers. You may also be able to sell your book at one of the local bookstores: The Book Exchange and Book Holders. Additionally, you may want to consider selling your book online at Amazon or eBay.

Off Campus Housing Fair

Looking for a place to live for 2015-2016? Then come to the WVU Off-Campus Housing Fairs! The Downtown Fair takes place one Wednesday, January 21 from 10 AM to 3 PM in the Mountainlair Ballrooms, and the Evansdale Fair takes place on Saturday, January 24 from noon to 3PM in the Lyon Tower Blue and Gold Rooms.

See you January 12th!